Presidential Order No. 03/01 of 13 April 1994

I, Dr. Théodore SINDIKUBWABO, Interim President of the Republic,

Pursuant to the Arusha Peace Accord signed on 4 August 1993 between the Government of the Republic of Rwanda and the Rwandese Patriotic Front, with particular reference to Article 3 thereof, and Article 22 of the Protocol Agreement on miscellaneous matters and final provisions;

Pursuant to the Constitution of the Republic of Rwanda of 10 June 1991, with particular reference to Articles 35, 44 and 48 thereof;

In view of the extremely difficult situation the country is experiencing and the serious risk of the invader, the Rwandese Patriotic Front, taking over power in Kigali;

Aware that it is the duty of the legitimate national authorities to do everything in their power to safeguard the interests of the people of Rwanda, particularly the Government Treasury in the custody of the National Monetary Authority;

Upon the advice of the Council of Ministers at its meeting held on 13 April 1994;

Do hereby direct as herebelow:

Article 1:

The Minister of Finance, jointly with the Governor of the National Bank of Rwanda, is authorised to take necessary measures to ensure the safety of all the funds deposited in the National Bank of Rwanda;

Article 2:

The Minister of Finance, in conjunction with the governor of the National Bank of Rwanda, shall take the necessary measures to ensure the proper management of the funds deposited in all financial institutions in the country;

Article 3:

The Minister responsible for trade shall take appropriate measures to ensure an efficient distribution of foodstuffs and set up buffer stocks in all the préfectures in the country, by withholding some of the traders' stocks;

Article 4:

...[missing text]... from the stocks of private companies or individuals.

Article 5:

This Presidential Order takes immediate effect and must be applied expeditiously.
